EAST VIRGINIA_(BAR)

4/4 1234 1 (without intro)

Intro: 4 measures of

Oh I was born in East Vir-ginia, North Caro-lina

I did roam

There I met a fair young maiden, her name and age,

I do not know

Her hair it was a brightsome color, and her lips of ruby red

On her breast she wore white lilies, there I longed to lay my head

Where in my heart you are my darlin', at my door you're welcome in

At my gate I need you, my darlin', if your love

I could on - ly win

I'd rather be in some dark holler, where the sun

refused to shine

Than to see you be another man's darlin', and to know that you'll never be mine p.2. East Virginia

INSTRUMENTAL VERSE

Tho' in the night I'm dreamin' 'bout you, in the day I find no rest

Just the thought of you, my darlin', sends achin' pains all through my breast

Well, when I'm dead and in my coffin, with my feet turned toward the sun

Come and sit beside me, darlin', come and think on the way you've done
