Intro: |  |  |  |  |

Hey there, lonely girl, lonely girl, let me make your broken heart like new

Hey there, lonely girl, lonely girl, don't you know this lonely boy loves you

Ever since he broke your heart you seem so lost each time you pass my way

Oh, how I long to take your hand, and say don't cry, I'll kiss your tears away

Hey there, lonely girl, my only girl, let me make your broken heart like new

You think that only his two lips can kiss your lips, and make your heart stand still

But once you're in my arms you'll see, no one can kiss your lips the way I will, the way I will

Hey there, lonely girl, lonely girl, let me make your broken heart like new

Don't you know this lonely boy loves you
