I WAS A LITTLE TOO LONELY (BAR)-Evans/Livingston

4/4 1...2...1234

Intro: |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

 |  |  |  |  |

You promised me you'd come back, I promised to wait.

 |  |  |  |  |  |

But I was a little too lonely, and you were a little too late.

 |  |  |  |  |

Too many long nights alone, not even a date.

 |  |  |  |  |  |

So I got a little too lonely, and now you're a little too late.

 |  |  |

You never would write, you never would call, while I had the blues, you were havin' a ball.

 |  |  |  |  |

You thought that I'd be here to run to, now I'm gonna do to you what I was done to.

 |  |  |  |  |

Too bad about you, my friend, it could've been great.

 |  |  |  |  |  |

But I was a little too lonely, and you were a little too late.

p.2. I Was a Little Too Lonely

Interlude:

You never would write, you never would call, while I had the blues, you were havin' a ball.

You thought that I'd be here to run to, now I'm gonna do to you what I was done to.

Too bad about you, my friend, it could've been great.

But I was a little too lonely, and you were a little too late.

Yes, I was a little too lonely, and you were just a little too late!
