

SING D

JULIANNE

4/4 1...2...1234

Intro:  (4 measures)

The shady side of Sunny Mountain, that's the place it all be-gan

There once lived the fairest maiden, and her name was Juli-anne

Julie's beau was tall and handsome, just a poor boy with treasures few

Still he promised rings of silver, for to prove his love was true

Chorus:

Have you seen her in the moonlight, silver rings upon her hand

Now she wears the crown of sorrow, and her name, and her name, was Juli-anne

p.2. Julianne

Wake me early in the morning, 'ere the birds begin to sing

I'll get silver from the mountains, and I'll fashion thee a ring

Off he rode into the mountains, when the fields were damp with dew

But instead he rode around them, and a-courtin', and a-courtin' Jenny-Lou
Chorus

The cabin door was standin' open on that wild and windy night

And the hound dog, he lay a-dyin' in that gloomy candle-light

They found her shattered, empty rifle, and the shawl she used to wear

But they never found his Julie, they never found, they never found the hungry bear
Chorus
