Intro:

She may be the face I can't for-get, the trace of pleasure or re-gret

May be my treasure or the price I have to pay

She may be the song that summer sings, may be the chill that autumn brings

May be a hundred different things within the measure of a day

She may be the beauty or the beast, may be the famine or the feast

May turn each day into a heaven or a hell

She may be the mirror of my dreams, the smile reflected in a stream

She may not be what she may seem in-side her shell

p. 2 She

She, who always seems so happy in a crowd, whose eyes can be so private and so proud

No one's allowed to see them when they cry

She may be the love that cannot hope to last, may come to me from shadows of the past

That I'll re-member till the day I die

She may be the reason I sur-vive, the why and wherefore I'm a-live

The one I'll care for through the rough and ready years

Me, I'll take her laughter and her tears, and make them all my souve-nirs

For where she goes I've got to be, the meaning of my life is she.

Me, I'll take her laughter and her tears, and make them all my souve-nirs

For where she goes I've got to be, the meaning of my life is she.
