She's a lady, and I chanced to meet her in my scufflin' days

She's a lady, hypnotized me there that day, I came to play in my usual way, hey

Floating a-long with the whimsical twinkling in her strange green eyes

Linger with me, she said, "Yes," and, oh, the time did fly

She's a lady, give her time, for she's al-owed to change her mind

She's a lady, happy to say, she once was mine. Only some-times I re-member old times.

And when she says, "Can you guess, it's a dress, you won't believe.

Would you come zip me up, and button up my sleeve."

Oh, lady, lady of ladies. I re-member days that felt like it was rainin' daisies!
