

THEY ALL LAUGHED-George & Ira Gershwin

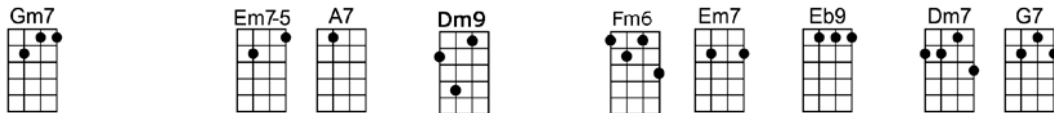

Verse:

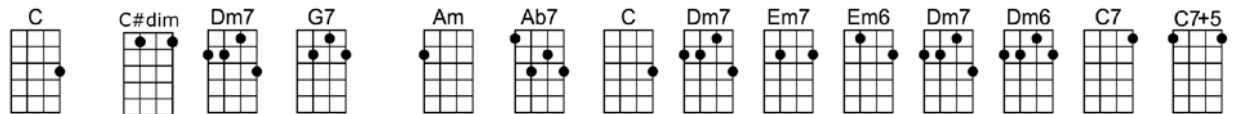

The odds were a hundred to one a-gainst me

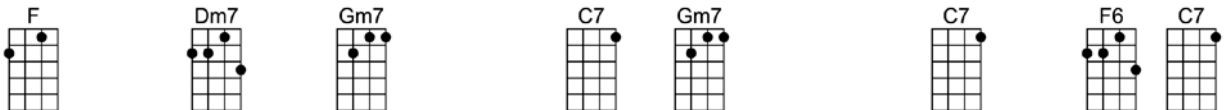

The world thought the heights were too high to climb

But people from Mis-souri never in-censed me, oh, I wasn't a bit con-cerned

For from history I had learned how many, many times the worm had turned

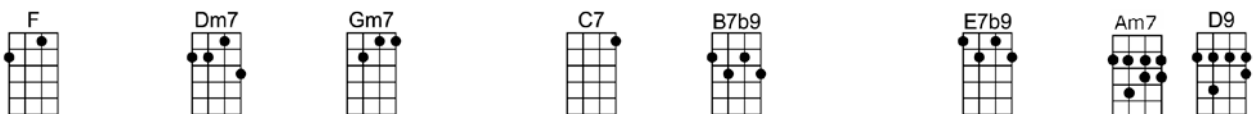

They all laughed at Christopher Col-umbus when he said the world was round

They all laughed at Rockefeller Center, now they're fighting to get in

They all laughed when Edison re-corded sound

They all laughed at Whitney and his cotton gin

They all laughed at Wilbur and his brother when they said that man could fly

They all laughed at Fulton and his steamboat, Hershey and his chocolate bar

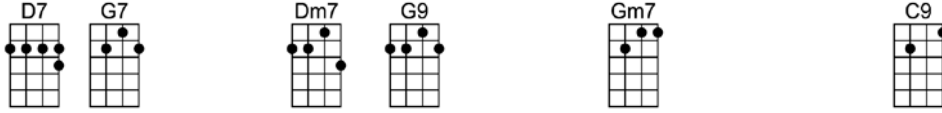

They told Marconi wireless was a phony, it's the same old cry
Ford and his Lizzie, kept the laughers busy that's how people are

p.2. They All Laughed

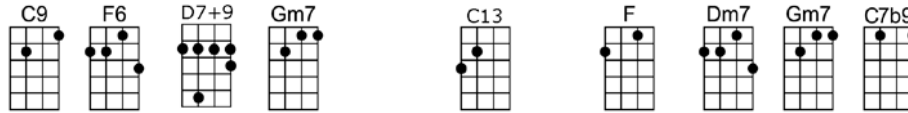

They laughed at me wanting you, said I was reaching for the moon
 They laughed at me wanting you, said it would be, "Hello, Good-bye."

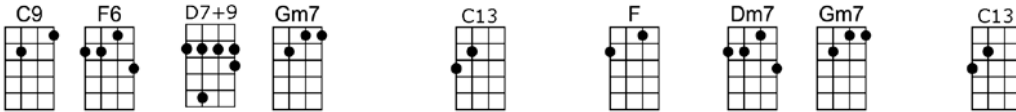

But oh, you came through, now they'll have to change their tune
 But oh, you came through, now they're eating humble pie

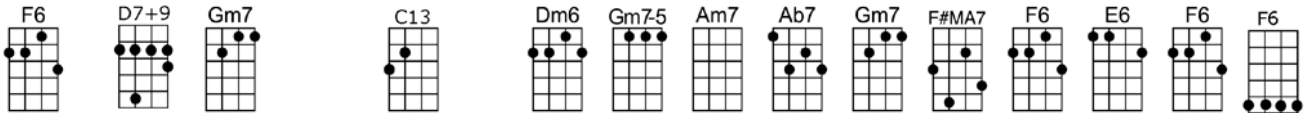

They all said we never could be happy, they laughed at us and how!
 They all said we'd never get to-gether, darling, let's take a bow

1. But ho, ho, ho! Who's got the last laugh now? (go to 2nd verse)

2. But ho, ho, ho! Who's got the last laugh, hee, hee, hee! Let's at the past laugh,

Ha, ha, ha! Who's got the last laugh now?
