Intro: |  |  |  |  |  |

There's nowhere in the world that I would rather be, than with you my love

And there's nothing in the world that I would rather see, than your smile, my love

For u-nited we stand, di-vided we fall, and if our backs should ever be against the wall

We'll be to-gether, to-gether, you and I

For u-nited we stand, di-vided we fall, and if our backs should ever be against the wall

We'll be to-gether, to-gether, you and I

And if the world around you falls a-part my love, then I'll still be here

And if the going gets too hard a-long the way, just you call, I'll hear
