

CRAZY (BAR)-Tom Scott

Intro:

Who needs Hollywood, I hear they're really nuts out there

Give me a town like old New York, with lots of trees and clean fresh air

I need a place where love is every-where. They say I'm.....

Cra - zy, just a little bit out of whack

Oh, they always like to act my dreams down, they call me a mani-ac

Well, if I'm cra - zy, what a wonderful way to be. Im-agine all the possi-bilities

If the whole world was just like me, ooh, ooh, ooh

Crazy, crazy, everyone thinks I'm crazy

But I've got a feeling deep inside, they'd all like to be just like me

Crazy, crazy, crazy crazy crazy crazy crazy

So, once in a while set yourself free. Who needs re-ality? They say I'm...

p.2. Crazy

Cra - zy, a study in imper-fection

But I'm just trying to find a little af-fection. Wouldn't you like that too?

People say I'm cra - zy, 'cause I say the first thing on my mind

I guess freedom is a serious crime these days

Well, lock the door and then, throw a-way the key

I guess being crazy is best for me

Ya La-La, La-Da-Di-Da-Di, Da-Da-Da, La-Da-Di-Dum, La-La-La, La-La-La, La-La-La

(Repeat last line, and fade)
