Galveston, oh, Gal-vest-son, I still hear your sea winds blowin'

I still see her dark eyes glowin'.

She was twenty-one, when I left Galveston

Galveston, oh, Gal-vest-son, I still hear your sea waves crashing

While I watch the cannons flashing,

I clean my gun and dream of Galveston
I still see her standing by the water, standing there, looking out to sea

And is she waiting there for me, on the beach where we used to run?

Galveston, oh, Gal-vest-on, I am so afraid of dying

Before I dry the tears she's crying

Before I watch your sea birds flying in the sun

At Galves-ton, at Galves-ton
