HAPPY TODAY, SAD TOMORROW - Lil Armstrong

4/4 1...2...123 (without intro)

Intro:

Now, I'm happy today, but I'm sad tomorrow. What a life for me!

Monday's gladness, Tuesday's sorrow, oh, the next day is full of ecsta-sy

Oh, now, I never know what the night will bring, when I awake each morn at the dawn

Whether I must cry, or whether I must sing, oh, Lord, why was I born?

My heart is full of de-votion, but through cloudy skies, I now real-ize

Mmm, now, you control my every e-motion, mmm, with just one look into your lovely eyes

Now, I'm happy today, but I'm sad tomorrow. What a life for me!

1. Monday's gladness, Tuesday's sorrow, oh, the next day is full of ecsta-sy (repeat song)

2. Monday's gladness, Tuesday's sorrow, oh, the next day is full of ecsta-sy

Yes, the next day is full of ecsta-sy
