IT MIGHT AS WELL BE SPRING w. Oscar Hammerstein m. Richard Rodgers

IT MIGHT AS WELL BE SPRING

I’m as restless as a willow in a wind-storm, I’m as jumpy as a puppet on a string

I’d say that I had spring fever, but I know it isn’t spring.

I am starry eyed and vaguely discontented, like a nightingale without a song to sing.

Oh, why should I have spring fever when it isn’t even spring?

I keep wishing I were somewhere else, walking down a strange new street

Hearing words that I have never heard from a girl I’ve yet to meet

I’m as busy as a spider spinning day-dreams, I’m as giddy as a baby on a swing.

I haven’t seen a crocus or a rosebud, or a robin on the wing,

But I feel so gay in a melancholy way that it might as well be spring

It might as well be spring.
