Intro: | Dm | F | G | A7 |

Dm                                 F                                 G                                 Dm
 Jack the Cat was a mighty cool cat,     so was Kitty Kitten
G                                 Dm                                 A7
 Just look in the alley way,     there they'll be a-sittin'
Dm                                 F                                 G                                 Dm
 One day, they roamed around,     lookin' for a meal or two
G                                 Dm                                 A7   Dm
 Wound up at a barbecue,     in honor of a cat named Mathew Lou

Dm                                 F                                 G                                 Dm
 Things were lookin' bright each day,     till Kitty Kitten ran away
G                                 Dm                                 A7
 She fell in love with a cat named Fred,     word was out that he'd soon be dead, 'cause
Dm                                 F                                 G                                 Dm
 Jack the Cat was a mighty cruel cat,     sure loved Kitty Kitten
 Anyone who got in his way     wouldn't be a-livin', he'd be in his grave

Dm                                 F                                 G                                 Dm
 Jack went out after Fred,     and he swore he'd kill him dead
G                                 Dm                                 A7
 He wasn't one to sympathize,     until he looked in Kitty's eyes

Dm                                 F                                 G                                 Dm
 Jack the Cat was a mighty cool cat,     so was Kitty Kitten
 Just look in the alley way,     there they'll be a-sittin'
   Dm                                 G                                 Dm
 For the rest of their days.....days.....days!
