(THE MAN WHO SHOT) LIBERTY VALANCE

4/4 1234 1 (without intro) -Burt Bacharach/Hal David

Intro:  (3 measures)

When Liberty Valance rode to town, the women folk would hide, they'd hide
From out of the East a stranger came, a law book in his hand, a man

When Liberty Valance walked a-round, the men would step a-side
The kind of a man the West would need to tame a troubled land

'Cause the point of a gun was the only law that Liberty under-stood

1. When it came to shootin' straight and fast, he was mighty good (2nd verse)

2. When it came to shootin' straight and fast, he was mighty good

Many a man would face his gun, and many a man would fall

The man who shot Liberty Valance, he shot Liberty Valance

He was the bravest of them all

The love of a girl can make a man stay on when he should go, stay on

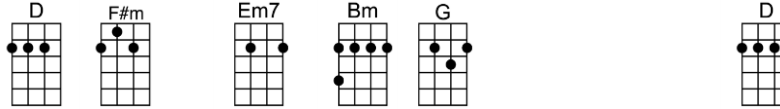

Just trying to build a peaceful life, where love is free to grow

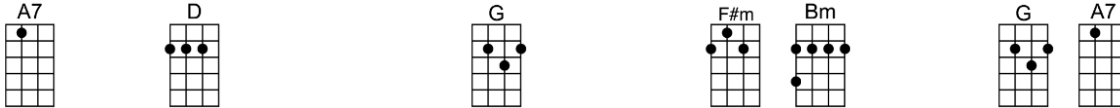

p.2. (The Man Who Shot) Liberty Valance

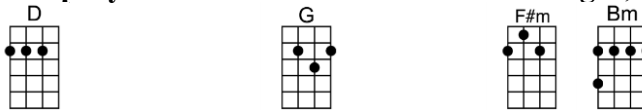

But the point of a gun was the only law that Liberty under-stood

When the final showdown came at last, a law book was no good

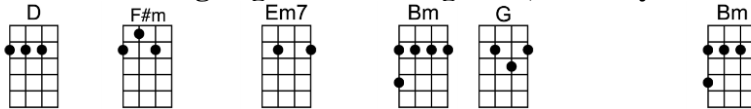

Alone and a-fraid, she prayed that he'd return that fateful night, ah, that night

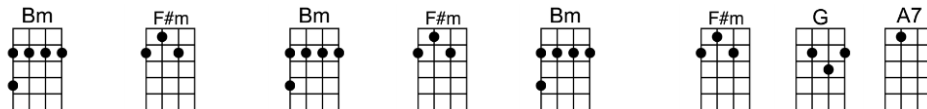

When nothing she said could keep her man from going out to fight

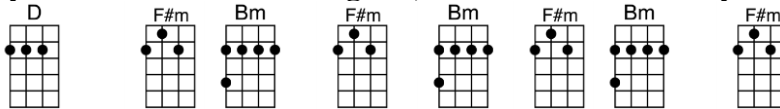

From the moment a girl gets to be full grown, the very first thing she learns

When two men go out to face each other, only one re-turns

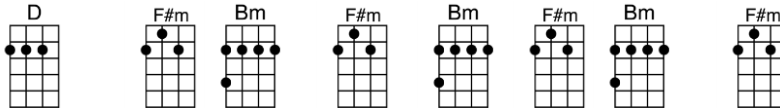

Everyone heard two shots ring out, one shot made Liberty fall

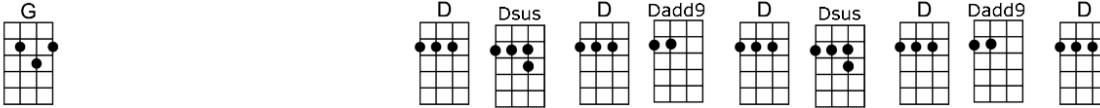

The man who shot Liberty Valance, he shot Liberty Valance

He was the bravest of them all

The man who shot Liberty Valance, he shot Liberty Valance
