

MAN (or MAID) OF CONSTANT SORROW

4/4 1234

Intro: |  |

I am a man of constant sorrow, I've seen trouble all my days

I'm going back to Cali-fornia, place where I was partly raised

All through this world I'm bound to ramble, through storm and wind, through sleet and rain

I'm bound to ride that northern railroad, perhaps I'll take the very next train

Your friends they say I am a stranger, you'll never see my face no more

There is just one promise that's given, I'll sail on God's golden shore

I am a man of constant sorrow, I've seen trouble all my days

I'm going back to Cali-fornia, place where I was partly raised
