SING A

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL IN THE WORLD (BAR)

3/4  123  1 (without intro)          -Rodgers and Hart

Intro: | DMA7 | % | A7sus | % | (X2)
DMA7     Ddim     DMA7     Ddim

The most beautiful girl in the world picks my ties out

DMA7 Ddim     Em7 A7     F#m7 B7b9 Em7 A7+5

Eats my candy,     drinks my brandy,     the most beautiful girl in the world

DMA7     Ddim     DMA7 Ddim

The most beautiful star in the world, isn't Garbo

DMA7 Ddim     Em7     A7     F#m7-5     B7

Isn't Dietrich,     but the sweet trick,     who can make me believe it's a beautiful world

Bm7 E7     A Bm7 E7     A

Social?     Not a bit! Natural     kind of wit

F#m7     B7     Bm7 E7     C9     B7     Bb7 A7
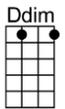

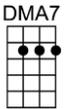

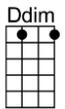

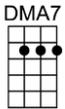

She'd shine     any-where,     and she hasn't got platinum hair

p.2.  The Most Beautiful Girl In the World
DMA7                    Ddim          DMA7          Ddim

The most beautiful house in the world has a mortgage.

DMA7      Ddim                Em7            A7

What do I care?        It's "Good-bye, care"

F#m7-5                  B7

When my slippers are next to the ones that belong

Em7            A7                    D     A7+5

To the one and only beautiful girl in the world

Interlude:  chords of 2nd verse

Bm7    E7        A    Bm7    E7            A

Social?        Not a bit! Natural        kind of wit

F#m7        B7      Bm7    E7          C9              B7      Bb7    A7

She'd shine        any-where,        and she hasn't got platinum hair

DMA7                    Ddim          DMA7          Ddim

The most beautiful house in the world has a mortgage.

DMA7      Ddim                Em7            A7

What do I care?        It's "Good-bye, care"

F#m7-5                  B7

When my slippers are next to the ones that belong

Em7            EbM7                DMA7

To the one and only beautiful girl in the world
THE MOST BEAUTIFUL GIRL IN THE WORLD

3/4  123  1 (without intro)                -Rodgers and Hart

Intro:  | DMA7 | ⁄ | Asus | ⁄ |   (X2)
```
        DMA7              Ddim         DMA7   Ddim
The most beautiful girl in the world picks my ties out
      DMA7  Ddim          Em7   A7                      F#m7  B7b9  Em7  A7+
Eats my candy,       drinks my brandy,     the most beautiful girl in the world
```
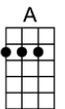

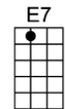

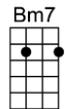

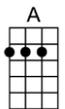

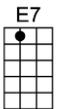

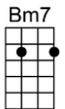

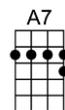

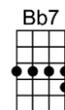

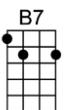

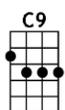

```
        DMA7              Ddim         DMA7  Ddim
The most beautiful star in the world, isn't Garbo
      DMA7  Ddim         Em7       A7                      F#m7b5        B7
Isn't Dietrich,       but the sweet trick,     who can make me believe it's a beautiful world
```
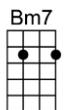

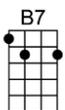

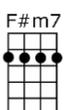

```
      Bm7   E7        A   Bm7   E7         A
     Social?     Not a bit! Natural      kind of wit
     F#m7        B7        Bm7   E7          C9          B7        Bb7  A7
     She'd shine      any-where,     and she hasn't got platinum hair
```
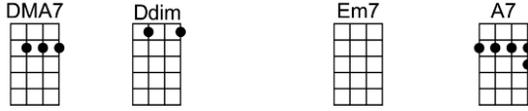

```
        DMA7              Ddim         DMA7   Ddim
The most beautiful house in the world has a mortgage.
      DMA7    Ddim          Em7        A7
What do I care?        It's "Good-bye, care"
                              F#m7b5           B7
When my slippers are next to the ones that belong
      Em7           A7                D   A7+
To the one and only beautiful girl in the world
```
Interlude:  chords of 2nd verse

```
      Bm7   E7        A   Bm7   E7         A
     Social?     Not a bit! Natural      kind of wit
     F#m7        B7        Bm7   E7          C9          B7        Bb7  A7
     She'd shine      any-where,     and she hasn't got platinum hair
```

```
        DMA7              Ddim         DMA7   Ddim
The most beautiful house in the world has a mortgage.
      DMA7    Ddim          Em7        A7
What do I care?        It's "Good-bye, care"
                              F#m7b5           B7
When my slippers are next to the ones that belong
      Em7           EbMA7           DMA7
To the one and only beautiful girl in the world
```