p.2. My Father

And I live in Paris now, my children dance and dream

Hearing the ways of a miner's life in words they've never seen

I sail my memo-ries of home, like boats across the Seine

And watch the Paris sun, set in my father's eyes a-gain

My father always promised us that we would live in France

We'd go boating on the Seine, and I would learn to dance

I sail my memo-ries of home, like boats across the Seine
