SING A

NOBODY CARES IF I'M BLUE(BAR)-Harry Akst
4/4
D   C7   B7   G   Gm6

All the old gang I once knew now have left me two by two.
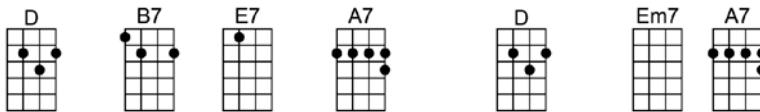

D   B7   E7   A7   A7+5

The old neighborhood don't look so good, I'm so lonely by my only.
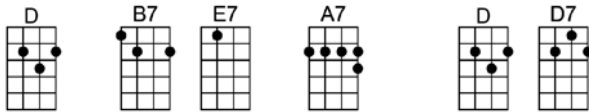

D   C7   B7   G   Gm6

Each and every one it seems meets the ideal of their dreams.

D   C7   B7   E7   A7   A7+5

I've searched every-where for my ideal. Now I'm beginning to feel

D   B7   E7   A7   D   Em7   A7

Nobody knows, nobody cares if I'm lonesome.

D   B7   E7   A7   D   D7

Nobody sighs, nobody cries if I'm blue.

G   Gm6   D   DMA7

It seems that night after night, I sit alone and twiddle my thumbs.

E7   Em7   A7   A7+5

But, still I keep right on hoping, keep the door open, but nobody comes.

| D | B7 | E7 | A7 | | D | Em7 | A7 |

Ain't it a crime, kisses of mine are just wasted?

| D7 | | | | | G |

Since I'm so blue, I'm singin', "What'll I do?" (Boo-hoo)

| | Bb | D | | Fdim |

Like a play-thing on the shelf, I guess I'll have to play by myself.

| D | B7 | E7 | A7 | | D | A7+5 |

1.   'Cause nobody knows, nobody cares if I'm blue.   (Instrumental, from "Nobody knows..")

| D | B7 | E7 | A7 |

2.   'Cause nobody knows, nobody cares for me,

| D | B7 | | E7 | A7 |

My sorrow grows, 'cause nobody shares with me,

| D | B7 | E7 | A7 | | D | Gm6 | D | D6 |

Nobody knows, nobody cares if I'm blue!

NOBODY CARES IF I'M BLUE-Harry Akst
4/4

```
 D              C7      B7   G           Gm6
All the old gang I once knew now have left me two by two.
    D                    B7        E7        A7    A7+
The old neighborhood don't look so good, I'm so lonely by my only.
 D             C7    B7   G         Gm6
Each and every one it seems meets the ideal of their dreams.
       D            C7    B7    E7              A7   A7+
I've searched every-where for my ideal. Now I'm beginning to feel
```

```
 D      B7    E7      A7         D      Em7  A7
Nobody knows, nobody cares if I'm lonesome.
```

```
 D      B7    E7      A7         D   D7
Nobody sighs, nobody cries if I'm blue.
```

```
          G           Gm6           D        DMA7
It seems that night after night, I sit alone and twiddle my thumbs.
```

```
        E7                               Em7           A7  A7+
But, still I keep right on hoping, keep the door open, but nobody comes.
```

```
 D      B7    E7      A7           D    Em7  A7
Ain't it a crime, kisses of mine are just wasted?
```
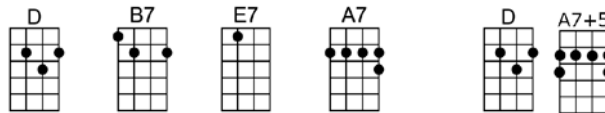

```
D7                              G
Since I'm so blue, I'm singin', "What'll I do?"  (Boo-hoo)
```
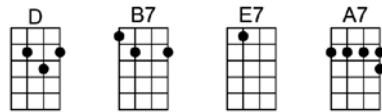

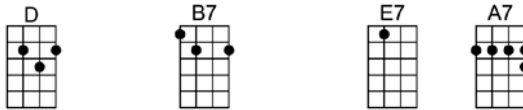

```
                     Bb     D          Fdim
Like a play-thing on the shelf, I guess I'll have to play by myself.
```
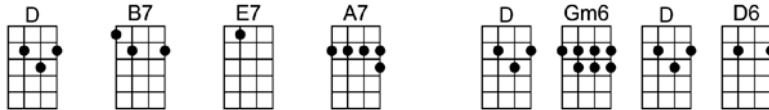

```
        D      B7    E7     A7        D    A7+
1.  'Cause nobody knows, nobody cares if I'm blue.        (Instrumental, from "Nobody knows..")
```

```
        D      B7    E7      A7
2.  'Cause nobody knows, nobody cares  for me,
```

```
  D         B7        E7      A7
My sorrow grows, 'cause nobody shares with me,
```

```
  D     B7    E7     A7         D   Gm6  D   D6
Nobody knows, nobody cares if I'm blue!
```