Plant a radish, get a radish, never any doubt.

F C D7 G7
That's why I love vegetables. You know what you're a-bout!

F Em7 Dm C C7
Plant a turnip. Get a turnip. Maybe you'll get two.

F C D7 G7 C
That's why I love vegetables. You know that they'll come through!

C7 F Em7 Dm G7 C C7
They're de-pendable! They're be-friendable! They're the best pal a parent's ever known!

F F#dim C
While, with childeren, it's be-wilderin'.

D7 G7
You don't know until the seed is nearly grown just what you've sown.

F Em7 Dm C C7
So, plant a carrot, get a carrot, not a Brussels sprout.

F C D7 G7
That's why I love vegetables. You know what you're a-bout!

   F                  Em7                Dm                  C    C7
Plant a beanstalk, get a beanstalk, just the same as Jack.

   F                  C                  D7              G7
Then, if you don't like it, you can always take it back!

       F              Em7                Dm                  C    C7
But, if your issue doesn't kiss you, then I wish you luck.

       F                        C                 D7   G7      C
For once you've planted children, you're abso-lutely stuck!

   C7      F                        Em7                    Dm               G7              C     C7
Every turnip green! Every kidney bean! Every plant grows ac-cording to the plot!

                  F        F#dim                C
While with progeny,           it's hodge-podgeny.

          D7                                                    G7
For as soon as you think you know what kind you've got, it's what they're not!

       F                Em7              Dm              C      C7
So, plant a cabbage, get a cabbage, not a sauer-kraut!

   F                  C                  D7                    G7
That's why I love vegetables. You know what you're a-bout!

  F              Em7             Dm      A7
Life is merry, if it's very vegetari-an!

    F                       Em7          D7    G7      C
A man who plants a garden is a very happy man!

    D7  G7    D7     G7   D7       G7          C
A vegi-tari, very merry ve..ge...ta…ri….an!
