Verse 1: 'Tention folks, speak of jokes, this is one on me,
Took my gal to a dance, at the Armo-ry,
Music played, dancer swayed, then we joined the crowd;
I can't dance, took a chance, and right then we start - ed:

CHORUS:
Stumbling all around, stumbling all around, stumbling all around so funny,
Stumbling here and there, stumbling everywhere, and I must declare,
I stepped right on her toes, and when she bumped my nose,
I fell and when I rose, I felt a-shamed, and told her,
That's the latest step, that's the latest step, that's the latest step, my honey

Notice all the pep, notice all the pep, notice all the pep;

She said, "Stop mumbling, tho' you are stumbling,

I like it just a little bit, just a little bit, quite a little bit.

Verse 2: Young and small short and tall, folks most ev'ry-where,

Take a chance do this dance, they think it's a bear,

People rave, and they crave, just to do this step,

Off they go, nice and slow, when the band starts play-ing:
