SUNDAY MORNING SUNSHINE - Harry Chapin

Intro: | | | | | |

I came into town with a knapsack on my shoulder, and a pocket full of stories that I just had to tell.

You know, I've knocked around a bit, and I've had my share of small town glories,

It's time to hit the city and that crazy carousel.

I been feeling sorry for myself, but you know I was only lonely, like everybody else. Until...

You brought your Sunday morning sunshine here into my Monday morning rain.

You taught me happiness just one time, it keeps on coming back again.

These streets were never highways, I had not known the sky above.

These days were never my days, for I had not known your love.
p.2. Sunday Morning Sunshine

It's funny how a city can put on a different face,

When it holds the one you care for, it becomes a different place.

And I never felt so far from alone. Oh, baby you brought me halfway home.

Oh, baby, you brought me halfway home.

You brought your Sunday morning sunshine here into my Monday morning rain.

You taught me happiness just one time, it keeps on coming back again and again.

Repeat chorus and fade (or a ritard, and end on D)
