

SING G#

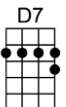

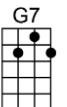

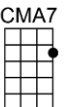

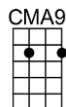

THAT FACE - Alan Bergman/Lew Spence

4/4 1...2...123 (without intro)

Intro: |  |  |  |  |

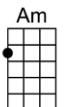

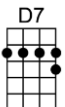

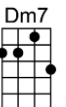

That face, that face, that wonderful face!

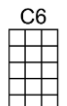

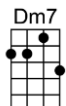

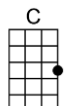

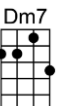

It shines, it glows all over the place

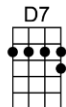

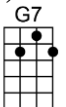

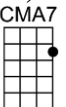

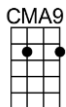

And how I love to watch it change ex-pressions.

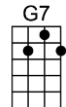

Each look becomes the prize of my pos-sessions

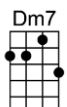

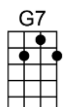

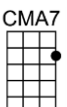

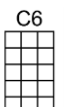

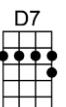

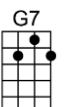

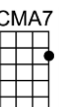

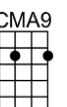

I love that face, that face, it just isn't fair.

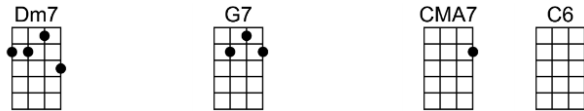

You must for-give the way that I stare

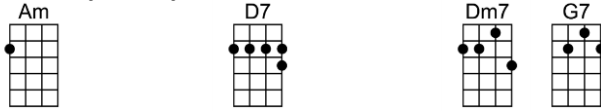

But never will these eyes behold a sight that could replace that face, that face, that face

Interlude:

p.2. That Face

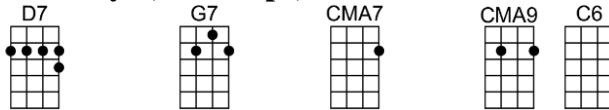

It's got my crazy heart in such a tangle

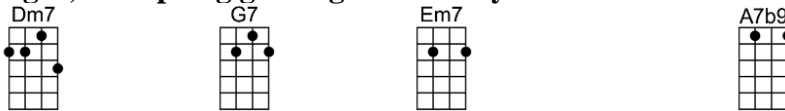

It drives me simply wild from every angle

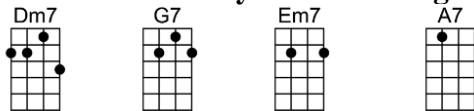

I love those eyes, those lips, that fabulous smile

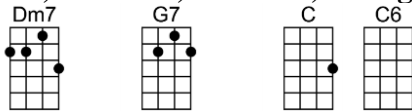

She laughs, and spring goes right out of style

And, never will these eyes behold a sight that could replace

That face, that face, that face, such grace

Your place, my place, that face

THAT FACE - Alan Bergman/Lew Spence

4/4 1...2...123 (without intro)

Intro: | Em7 | A7b9 | Dm7 | G7b9 |

C6 Dm7 C Dm7 G7
That face, that face, that wonderful face!
D7 G7 CMA7 CMA9 C6
It shines, it glows all over the place

Dm7 G7 CMA7 C6
And how I love to watch it change ex-pressions.
Am D7 Dm7 G7
Each look becomes the prize of my pos-sessions

C6 Dm7 C Dm7 G7
I love that face, that face, it just isn't fair.
D7 G7 CMA7 CMA9 C6
You must for-give the way that I stare
Dm7 G7 Em7 A7b9 Dm7 G7 C6
But never will these eyes behold a sight that could replace that face, that face, that face

Interlude: Dm7 G7 CMA7 C6 D7 G7 CMA7 CMA9 C6

Dm7 G7 CMA7 C6
It's got my crazy heart in such a tangle
Am D7 Dm7 G7
It drives me simply wild from every angle

C6 Dm7 C Dm7 G7
I love those eyes, those lips, that fabulous smile
D7 G7 CMA7 CMA9 C6
She laughs, and spring goes right out of style
Dm7 G7 Em7 A7b9
Oh, never will these eyes behold a sight that could replace
Dm7 G7 Em7 A7
That face, that face, that face, such grace
Dm7 G7 C C6
Your place, my place, that face