

THEN I'D BE SATISFIED WITH LIFE - George M. Cohan

4/4 1...2...1234

Intro: |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |  |

All I want is 50 million dollars, and seal skins to protect me from the cold

If I only knew how stocks would do on Wall Street, and were living in a mansion built of gold

If I only owned the Pennsylvania Railroad, and if Taylor Swift would only be my wife

If I could only stay sixteen for-ever, then I know that I'd be satisfied with life

All I want are Crepe Suzettes for breakfast, and a champagne fountain sizzlin' at my feet

While Donald Trump was waiting on my table, and The Rolling Stones were playing while I eat

p.2. Then I'd Be Satisfied With Life

If I only owned the Western Union Railroad, and if Taylor Swift would only be my wife

If I could only stay sixteen for-ever, then I know that I'd be satisfied with life

Interlude:

If I could only stay sixteen for-ever, then I know that I'd be satisfied,

I know that I'd be satisfied, yes, I know that I'd be satisfied with life!
