Intro: | C | ⁒ | Bbadd9 | ⁒ | C | ⁒ |
[C] I woke up today and found [Bb6] the frost perched on the [C] town
And I had a girl in summertime, with summer-colored skin
Now the warriors of winter give a cold triumphant shout
I'll ply the fire with kindlin' and pull the blankets to my chin

[Bbadd9] It hovered in a frozen sky, [Bb6] and gobbled summer [C] down
And not another man in town   my darlin's heart could win
And all that stays is dyin'   and all that lives is gettin' out
I'll lock the vagrant winter out   and bolt my wanderin' in

[F] And when the sun turns traitor [Eb] cold, [F] and shiverin' trees are standin' in a [Eb] naked [G] row
But when the leaves fell tremblin' down,   and bully winds would rub their faces in the snow
See the geese in chevron flight,   flappin' and   a-racin' on   be-fore the snow
I'd like to call back summertime,   and have her stay for just another month or so

[C] I get the urge for goin', [Bb6] but I never seem to [C] go
She got the urge for goin'   and I had to let her go
They've got the urge for goin' and they've got the wings to go
But she's got the urge for goin', so I guess she'll have to go
Gm7   F   C   Gm7   F   C

And I   get the urge for goin', when the   meadow grass   is a-turnin' brown
And she got the urge for goin' when the   meadow grass was a-turnin' brown
And they get the urge for goin' when the   meadow grass   is a-turnin' brown
And she gets the urge for goin' when the   meadow grass   is a-turnin' brown

Gm7   F   C   Bb6 C
Summer-time is a-fallin' down, and winter's closin' in   (2nd verse)
And summer-time was fallin' down, and winter was closin ' in   (3rd verse)
Summer-time is a-fallin' down, and winter's closin' in   (4th verse)
And all her empire is a-fallin' down, and winter's closin'   in   (CODA)
