

SING D

WOMAN, WOMAN - Jim Glaser/Jimmy Payne

4/4 1...2...1234

Intro:  (4 beats)

Wo -man, oh, wo -man, have you got cheating on your mind? On your mind

Something's wrong be-tween us that your laughter cannot hide

And you're a-fraid to let your eyes meet mine

And lately when I love you, I know you're not satis-fied

Wo -man, oh, wo -man, have you got cheating on your mind? On your mind

I've seen the way men look at you, when they think I don't see

And it hurts to have them think that you're that kind

But it's knowing that you're looking back that's really killing me

p.2. Woman, Woman

Wo -man, oh, wo -man, have you got cheating on your mind? On your mind

Interlude:

A woman wears a certain look when she is on the move

And a man can always tell what's on her mind

I hate to have to say it, but that look's all over you

Wo -man, oh, wo -man, have you got cheating on your mind?

Wo -man, oh, wo -man, have you got cheating on your mind? On your mind
