All my life was a paper, once plain, pure and white

Till you moved with your pen, changing moods now and then, till the balance was right

Then you added some music, every note was in place

And any-body could see all the changes in me, by the look on my face

And you decorated my life

Cre-ated a world where dreams are a part

And you decorated my life

By painting your love all over my heart

You decorated my life

p.2. You Decorated My Life

Like a rhyme with no reason, in an unfinished song

There was no harmony, life meant nothing to me, until you came along

Then you brought out the colors. What a gentle surprise

Now I'm able to see all the things life can be, shining soft in your eyes

And you

decorated my life

Cre-ated a world where dreams are a part

And you

decorated my life

By painting your love

all over my heart

You decorated my life
