Intro: |     |     | (X2)

Zoom, Zoom will keep us to-gether, we may be locked down for-ever

So, practice the songs if you're taking a break, or thinkin' of Jake

Or when you're lyin' in bed, and you're hardly awake

Just strum, you've just got to get better, don't stop, or you'll be a regretter

If we've got WiFi, then Zoom will keep us to-gether. Whatever!

Nice clothes! We see that you've got good taste, but we only see above the waist

And, so, while we're playing these songs, you could be wearing a thong,

And be-cause we can't hear, you could be strumming all wrong

p.2. Love Will Keep Us Together

Just strum, you've just got to get better, don't stop, or you'll be a regretter

If we've got WiFi, then Zoom will keep us to-gether. Whatever!

That list of songs is a beaut! Though sometimes it sounds way off-key

But, when I click the un-mute, what do you mean that it's me? Not fair! Not fair! Not fair!

We share this love of playing ukie, most people think we're kookie

Some day we'll be back playin' our gigs, we play sambas and jigs

In Ha-waiian type shirts, sometimes we even wear wigs

We'll just strum, we've just got to get better, don't stop, or you'll be a regretter

No gloom, we'll bloom in our room with Zoom!
